Numb. 5102

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 10. to Saturday March 14 1712.

St. James's, March 9.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Kintore, was ſent up by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Kintore, and preſented to Her Majeſty by Alexander Reid, of Barra, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Findlater and Seafeild.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baliffs, Town-Council, and Community of the Burgh of Kintore in North-Britain.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and moſt Loyal Subjects, with all humble Gratitude acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your Repreſentatives of Your People in Parliament the Terms on which the General Peace may be made, (notwithſtanding Your undoubted Prerogative is to make Peace and War.) Nothing but the Bleſſing of God upon Your indefatigable Care and Watchfulneſs, with a prudent and diligent Miniſtry, could have brought us ſo near a view of Peace, ſo Honourable and Advantageous to Great Britain, Juſt to Your Allies, and Beneficial to Trade; and, as a ſure Pledge of the ſame, ſee Your Majeſty poſſeſſed of the important Fort of Dunkirk.

We further beg Leave humbly to return Your Majeſty our moſt hearty Thanks for the Toleration granted to thoſe of the Epiſcopal Perſwaſion, and for reſtoring of the Patrons to their antient Rights and Privileges. May Your Majeſty long live to ſee a grateful People bleſſing God and Your Majeſty, in the great Enjoyment of thoſe Comforts which Your Majeſty in Your great Wiſdom has procured for them. We are, with great Submiſſion, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, moſt Loyal, and moſt Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Stirling, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Henry Cuningham, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Argyle.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Stirling, repreſenting the whole Incorporations and Inhabitants thereof.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do, in the moſt humble and ſubmiſſive manner, preſume to approach Your Sacred Preſence with our ſincere and hearty Acknowledgments of Your tender Regard and conſtant Endeavours for the Good of all Your loving Subjects, and the many and great Bleſſings we thereby enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government.

We reflect, with the utmoſt Pleaſure, on Your Majeſty's wiſe Adminiſtration and glorious Succeſſes, during the Courſe of a long and neceſſary War; which gives us abſolute Aſſurances that ſuch a Peace will (by the ſame wiſe and prudent Conduct) be concluded, as ſhall accreſs to the Glory of Your Majeſty's Reign, the Happineſs of Your Subjects, and Safety of Your Allies.

We beg leave to lay hold on this Opportunity, with the utmoſt Satisfaction and Gratitude, to offer to Your Majeſty our hearty Thanks for Your Prudent Care and Royal Concern for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, as Eſtabliſh'd by Law; and alſo Your repeated Aſſurances to protect and maintain the Rights and Privileges of this National and Legally Eſtabliſhed Church of Scotland, whoſe ſtedfaſt Loyalty, Fidelity and Affection to Your Perſon and Government, we hope will always intitle them to Your Majeſty's Royal Favour and Countenance. The juſt Senſe of theſe and many other Bleſſings, doth engage and encourage us to an humble Offer of our Lives and Fortunes in Your Majeſty's Service.

That Your Majeſty's Life may be long, and Your Reign Proſperous for the Defence of the Proteſtant Intereſt and Liberties of Europe, and at laſt be bleſſed with an Immortal Crown of Glory, is the conſtant Prayers of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Humble, moſt Obedient, and Loyal Subjects.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Berlin, March 11. N. S. The King of Pruſſia, with the Margrave Albert, went yeſterday Morning to Schonhauſen, a Royal Palace near this Place, to ſee the Czar, who arrived there the Evening before: It is not yet known how long he intends to ſtay. His Majeſty hath reduced the Horſe-Guards from four Troops to two, each of which is to conſiſt of Seventy five Men. One of them is to be commanded by Lieutenant General Tettau, and the other by Major General Grote. He hath likewiſe leſſen'd the Salaries of moſt of the Officers of the Houſhold, and made a great reduction in the Stables, and in every other Branch of Expence. It is believed the Swiſs-Guards will be diſmiſs'd, after they have attended at the Ceremony of the late King's Funeral, which is appointed to be on the firſt of May, and in the mean time his Body is depoſited in the Chappel of the Caſtle. Major General Gronkau and Monſieur Creutz have been declared Counſellors of State, and are to have the direction of the Military Affairs. Count Truchſes, Chamberlain to the late King, is appointed to carry back the Order of the Garter, which his Maſter was poſſeſs'd of, to the Queen.

Paris, March 15. N. S. This Morning, at Eight of the Clock, the Parliament of Paris aſſembled at the Palace. The Duke of Bourbon, Prince of Conti, Duke of Maine, and Count de Toulouſe, Princes of the Blood, with about twenty Dukes and Peers of France, were then preſent. The Temporal Peers were in rich Cloaks, and the Biſhops in their Habits. There were alſo Seven Preſidents au Mortier, and a great number of the King's Advocates and Counſellors in their Robes. About an Hour after the Dukes of Berry and Orleans came likewiſe in rich Cloaks, and being ſeated, they all put on their Hats. Monſieur de Meſmes, firſt Preſident, made a Compliment to the Duke of Berry in the Name of the Aſſembly upon his entring the Parliament for the firſt time. Then one of the Advocates General made a Speech upon the occaſion of their Meeting, and delivered to the Attorney-General the King's Letters Patents about the Renunciations, and they were read by one of the Counſellors, after which the Renunciations of the King of Spain to the Crown of France, and of the Dukes of Berry and Orleans to that of Spain, with all the Acts relating to them were likewise read, and being deliberated upon, they were approved, and ordered to be registred; and the Instrument formerly enter'd in the Parliament, to preserve King Philip's Right to the Crown of France, was order'd to be annull'd and raz'd out. Then the Seven Presidents au Mortier, went out to put on their Scarlet Robes, and being returned and seated, the first President ordered all the Doors to be opened, and the most antient Advocate General made another Speech, after which the chief Register read publickly over again the Letters Patents, Renunciations, and all the other Acts as approv'd and registred. The first President then went to every one of the Dukes and Peers, and to the other Members, and ask'd them if they consented to what had been transacted? Upon which he made a short Speech to thank them for their coming thither. The Duke of Shrewsbury, and Mr. Prior, accompanied by some English Lords and Gentlemen, were present at this Ceremony on the Part of Her Majesty, as was also the Duke D'Ossuna on the Part of the King of Spain.

Utrecht, March 17. N. S. On the 15th the Deputies of the States of Flanders and Brabant were in Conference with Her Majesty's Plenipotentiaries. The same Day the Ministers of France had a Conference with those of the States-General, in the Presence of their Lordships. Yesterday Morning the Earl of Strafford set out for the Hague, as did likewise the Plenipotentiaries of the States, and Count Sinzendorff, after he had dispatch'd a Courier to Vienna, and another to Barcelona by the way of France. This Morning the French Ministers were with the Lord Privy Seal at his own House.

Westminster, March 10. This Day the Parliament met, and was further Prorogued to Tuesday the 17th Instant.

On Friday last Susanna Lady Bellasyse died at her House in Kensington: She was the Daughter of Sir William Armin of Lincolnshire, and was created Baroness of Osgodby by King Charles the Second.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby strictly require all the Men belonging to Her Majesty's Ships in Sea Pay at Portsmouth, Spithead, and at Chatham, and those belonging to the Hampshire at Woolwich, which are absent from the said Ships, to repair immediately to their Duty aboard, and diligently attend the same, as they will answer the contrary by the forfeiture of the Wages due to them.

The Paymaster-General of Her Majesty's Guards, Garrisons, &c. in Great Britain hereby gives Notice, That Money is issued for the Subsistance of the Troops and Regiments under his Care, to the 22d of February last inclusive.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be holden at the East India House in Leadenhall-street, London, on Thursday the 9th of April next, for the Election of 24 Directors for the Year ensuing, which will continue from 9 in the Morning till 6 in the Afternoon of the said Day, after which time no Lists will be taken in. That the Lists of the Members of the said Company will be ready to be delivered at the said House, on the 30th Instant, That a general Court of the general Society for Election of 24 Trustees for the Year ensuing, will be holden at the same Place on the 14th of April next, from 9 in the Forenoon till 1 in the Afternoon, after which time no Lists will be taken in. That the Transfer Books of the said Company will be shut up on the 20th Instant, and opened on the 13th of April next: And, That the Annuity Warrants will be delivered out to the Adventurers on the 11th of May next.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court to consider of a Dividend will be held at the Bank of England, on Thursday next the 19th Instant, at 11 in the Forenoon.

Notice is hereby given, That the General Court of the Company of Mine-Adventurers of England, held on Tuesday the 10th Instant, was then Adjourned to Thursday the 19th Instant, and will then be held at Stationers-Hall, London, at 10 in the Morning.
